

Halloween Soirée Style

It's time for spooky, scary ghouls and ghosts! Halloween is a fun time to dress up and throw a party. One of my favorite things to do each season is decorate my home and bar cart accordingly. October is especially a favorite since it is a Halloween themed one! I'm sharing some ideas to spook up your home for a soiree.

A fun banner always sets the mood in the best way. There are so many cute options out there! I'm loving this double garland option. It would look great on your mantle or wherever else you have in mind to hang them!

Both garlands available for $32.95 via ETSY

Every bar cart needs a letterboard! These are so fun to change for different seasons and occasions. There are tons of funny ideas for what to write on them on Pinterest and Instagram if you search!

Letterboard available for $15 via Target

A must have for any soiree is good snacks! Charcuterie is perfect for the occasion. From cheese to meat, nuts, sweet and salty treats—there will be a little bit of everything for all guests. Themed boxes are available and can be customized to your needs. The best part is that it can also be delivered directly to you!

Charcuterie Boxes range from $25-100 via Grazing East Texas

Use this marquee sign to light up your tablescap or bar cart. It runs on battery power so you could use it virtually anywhere you would like! Such a fun addition to any Halloween décor setting. I think I'm going to snag this one for myself!

Marquee sign available for $27.99 via Kohl's

Decorate the porch or other areas of your home with pumpkins of different sizes! I love the small gourds for fillers. You can also grab a few to having a pumpkin carving contest!

Gourds and pumpkins available via Merchant House Gardens and Williams Memorial Pumpkin Patch

No party is complete without little details like themed paper goods! I love a funny cocktail napkin and change them out seasonally. These are two options I think would look great paired with any Halloween color scheme!

Each set of 20 available for $6.95 via Swozzie's
