

FRIDAY NIGHT NIGHT LIGHTS

Friday Night Lights in Texarkana are hard to beat—just like the old days. The glow from Tiger Stadium, Razorback Stadium, Harris Field, and Hawk Stadium signals more than a football game. It's the kind of tradition that never fades. Friends, families, and classmates show up in school colors, filling the stands with energy and hometown pride. From the band's halftime tunes to the cheerleaders and drill teams, it is about more than the score. It's about community spirit. Around here, Friday nights are for showing up, standing together, and celebrating what makes Texarkana special.

WOODO PIG SOOTIE!

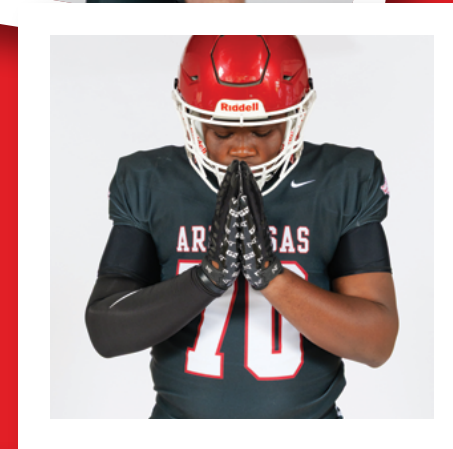

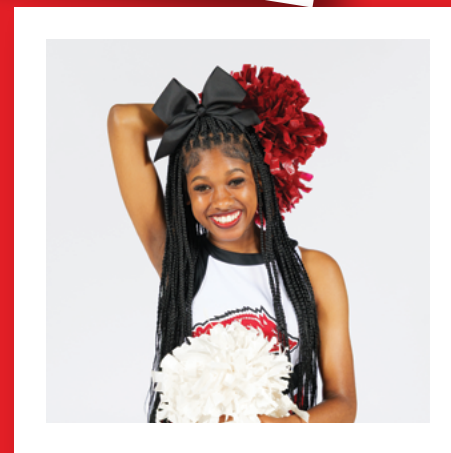

“With smiles on our faces and angels on our toes. Amen.”

—Redline Prayer

“What day is it? Show day!”

—The Band

“My favorite thing about Friday Night Lights is supporting the Razorbacks. There’s nothing like the sound of the band, the roar of the crowd, and the energy in the air when those lights come on! We love leading the student section, performing on the sidelines, and being a part of something that feels bigger than just a game—it’s tradition, pride, and Razorback spirit all in one night.”

—Crystal Lambert, Cheer Coach

WE TELL THE STORY. WE TELL THE WHOLE WIDE WORLD THIS IS LEOPARD TERRITORY!

“I’m most excited about the halftime show. It’s like painting a picture—we aim to express emotion and create a full sensory experience for our audience every game and competition.”

—T’Randle Taylor, Band Director

“I am most looking forward to every home game! We love seeing our community show up and show out.”

—Denise Webb, Athletic Secretary

“What excites me most is seeing our dancers’ dedication come to life on Friday nights. We make every Friday night a celebration to remember!”

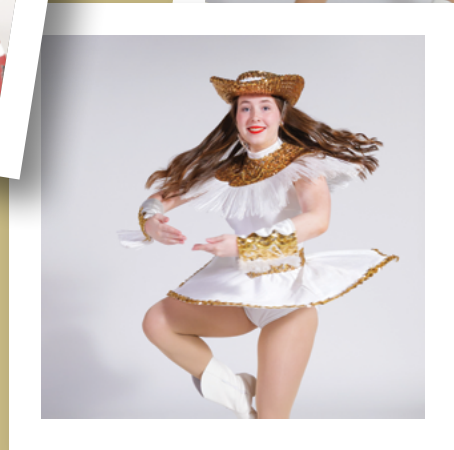

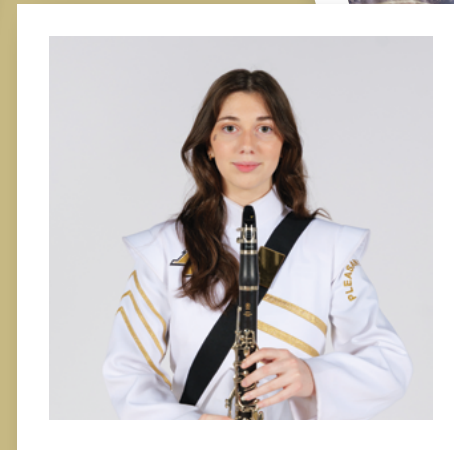

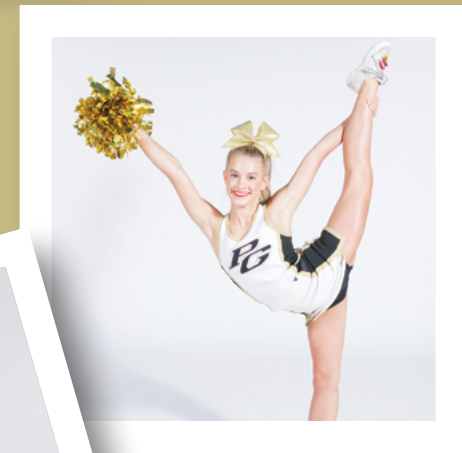

—Juanita Ross, English Teacher & Dazzlers Drill Team Director

HAWK NATION!

“Friday nights are incredibly special to Pleasant Grove. We have ELITE fan support, and it’s a true community event that brings everyone in our district together.”

—Josh Gibson, Athletic Director and Head Football Coach

“I’m always thrilled for Friday night football games and watching the girls cheer on the Hawks. However, I must admit that I get even more excited for the Watermelon Supper and pep rallies, where the girls get to showcase their true talents.”

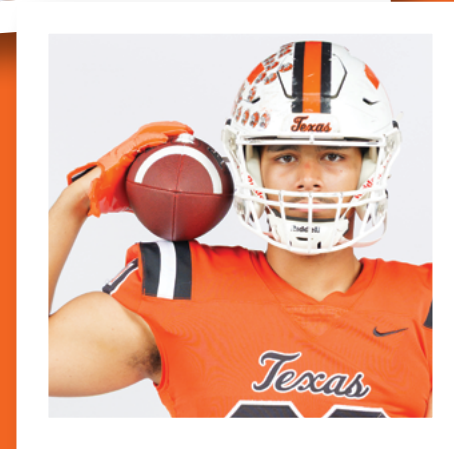

—Shera Hopkins, Cheer Coach

WHO YA WITH? T-HIGH!

—Amber Reynolds, Highstepper Coach

“My favorite part of Friday Night Lights is the sounds of the fans, the excitement of the kids, the noise of the band—I love the pageantry of the game. The raw emotion and the frustration of having to push through something hard.”

—Gerry Stanford, Athletic Director and Head Football Coach
