Celebration Table

The holidays come to life around the table, where stories, laughter, and memories are made more special with every meal. Whether you are hosting an elegant dinner party with heirloom china and crystal stemware or a casual gathering with acrylic tumblers and charming paper goods, Texarkana's local shops have everything you need. From pieces precious enough to pass down, to finds so beautiful you will not believe they are disposable, discover how to dress your table for the season.
