Fat Jacks Oyster & Sports Bar was founded on February 6, 1985, by local legend Jack Mills, who transformed the former Shrimp House into a thriving Texarkana landmark. Though Jack sadly passed away in January 2015, his spirit lives on through his wife, Meredith Mills, and business partner, Lance LeMay, who are devoted to keeping Jack’s dream alive.

Famous for fresh oysters, fried oyster baskets, steaks, and succulent seafood, Fat Jacks is equally celebrated for its lively music scene. You can also enjoy multiple screens for watching sports, shuffleboard, and both inside and outside seating.
